A number of guests will join us this month:

- Dennis Peters, a member of the Menomonie congregation, is working on a Master's degree in Interfaith Chaplaincy at United Theological Seminary, in New Brighton. This semester he is interning at Positive Avenues in Eau Claire, a walk-in center for homeless, those with mental health or addiction issues.
- Jacob Greutzman is a member of the Eau Claire congregation.
- Rev. Suzanne Wasilczuk, a member of the Duluth congregation, provides services to UU's in northern Minnesota and Wisconsin.
- Karina O'Brien is an immigration lawyer from Acadia Wisconsin

The Forum on October 15 will focus on how we engage the wider community. The board has decided to try offering Wednesday evening discussions twice a month starting in January. What these should consist of and how they should be organized/publicized are the questions for which input is needed.

On October 29 UU members from Menomonie and St. Croix Falls, and possibly other interested individuals from northwest Wisconsin, will join us to share UU rituals, songs, and readings; the purpose: to update one another on what our respective congregations are doing; and to discuss ways in which we might work and help one another.
