

July Calendar

This month we continue our new program schedule which will roughly alternate in-person and on-line services. On the Wednesday evening following an in-person service, a ZOOM service will be available on-line for those who cannot attend in-person. If you have not been vaccinated, we request that you wear a mask while in the church building.

The July 4th picnic will be at Roux Park on 1129 W. Marshall St. for a potluck celebration. Time 11:00. Like our Memorial Day Picnic, please bring your utensils, drink, and a dish to pass! Roux Park is within a residential area, west of Wisconsin Ave.

Of his service, Dennis says: "It's summer. Bright sunshine. Warm (Hot!) days. Softball games. Concerts in the bandshell. Picnics. Fireworks—some sponsored, other... spontaneous! Green trees, lazy hammocks, walks with friends. What better time to talk about... Death! No, really: this will be fun!" For those who cannot attend, the zoom service on the 14th will feature Dennis' comments along with our other program elements.

Erin Walters returns with a program featuring her own music.

And our own Jim Bradley will share his thoughts on the intersection between science and ethics, a long-standing interest of his and a timely one as well.
