

July Calendar

The hybrid model for programming which combines people gathering at the church with others linked in remotely through ZOOM continues as will use of the new camera/microphone (OWL) which allows the people on zoom and at church to see and hear each other better. While the services begin at 10, the zoom room will be open at 9 for those who wish to engage in conversation about a variety of topics and issues.

For July 2 we bring back an old BHUUF tradition: the Soapbox Sunday. Here's how it works: at the beginning, the facilitator asks folks to suggest a topic/issue they would like us to consider. Then we divide the time up among these and proceed with discussion. Of course, we do our regular openings/closings as well.

Dennis Peters' says this about his service: "Each of us has our own personal mountain to scale. Is it a positive experience? What does that entail for you? When you reach the summit and look down, what do you see?"

Arthur's service asks us to focus on our most basic experiences, saying: "Our day-to-day lives are filled with interactions with others which are often frustrating. Strangers get in our way, delay us, or just irritate us as we try to do whatever we are trying to do. How can we confront these challenges in a way that is consistent with our spiritual or religious beliefs, and may even help us grow?"
