

September Calendar

The hybrid model for programming which combines people gathering at the church with others linked in remotely through ZOOM will continue for the foreseeable future since we are scattered geographically and have various abilities/inclinations to travel to Rice Lake. While the services begin at 10, the zoom room will be open at 9 for those who wish to engage in conversation about a variety of topics and issues.

Our Ingathering will consist of a special celebration of the importance of water in our lives and in that of all beings on our planet. Please plan to bring some water from a source important to you. We will combine all of these, reflect on the sacredness of water, and spend time sharing our views before gathering for a potluck lunch.

Rev. Phil Lund is the Congregational Life Consultant for the MidAmerica Region of UUA. He says: As the number of people seeking religious community continues to decline, the importance of being a radically welcoming people goes up. But how welcoming are we, really? Find out what it takes for us to “be our most beautiful, welcoming selves.”

Dennis Peters’ says this about his service: Is Unitarian Universalism a proponent of interfaith relations? Is pluralism something near and dear to our hearts? Do we believe that all paths lead upward? Not so fast! It is kind of a trick question. Perhaps we need to reevaluate who we are, in light of our own beliefs and stance in this world.
