

March Calendar

The hybrid model for programming which combines people gathering at the church with others linked in remotely through ZOOM will continue for the foreseeable future since we are scattered geographically and have various abilities/inclinations to travel to Rice Lake. While the services begin at 10, the zoom room will be open at 9 for those who wish to engage in conversation about a variety of topics and issues.

Dennis says this about his service: Unitarian Universalism represents many views, sometimes views that conflict with each other. I'm going to stick my neck out here, and present some views that I espouse. I look forward to the discussion!

Arthur explains: This Sunday is both Purim for the Jews and Palm Sunday for the Christians. I'm sure you all know something about Palm Sunday, so let's learn something about Purim, and what we UUs might gain from this unusual observance/celebration. Please have a child's noisemaker handy: anything will do or you can google "grogger" for something authentic. But really, don't spend any money, just improvise.

We observe the Easter holiday and the vernal equinox with a return to an old favorite service: music & poetry. Please bring poems which speak to you of the season.
