All are asked to attend the annual meeting on the 3rd, either at the church or on zoom. The Order of Service/agenda will be forthcoming. We will be electing the board and the nominating committee for next year, adopting a budget for 2026-27, and celebrating our achievements of the last year. Stay after for coffee, treats, and conversation with friends.

Looking back on growing up in New York City in the 1950's, Judy will reflect on the importance of church/state separation and the value of diversity.

Master storyteller Pat Barry helps us understand what fairy tales tell us about today's world.

Jude explains: In honoring our UU goal of "a free and responsible search for truth" Jude Genereaux takes a step in this direction by sharing with the fellowship a number of moving, and difficult discoveries at Sunday's service, April 26th. Be with us as she reports on her enlightening experience reading the text by Erik M. Redix, "The Murder of Joe White." Joe's actual name: Chief Giishkitawag of the Lac Courte Oreilles Band of Lake Superior Ojibwe.

Instead of a 3rd Sunday potluck, let's gather at the park on May 31st for a Summer Kick-off picnic.
